YSEALI Experience Sharing Session, Da Nang
Project leader: Trâm Bùi, trambtq6688@gmail.com
This event will promote YSEALI and its activities in Da Nang to high school and university students through workshops, discussions and alumni sharing their experiences.

Memory Training Workshop: Secrets of Dynamic Memory Power, Hue City
Project leader: Phan Phước Thục Nguyên, thucnguyen.pp@gmail.com
YSEALI alumni and members will conduct a training workshop for 100 young people on techniques to boost brain power and improve memory, providing an important tool for active learning and research.
Read Green, Live Green
Projet leader: Nguyễn Thị Quy, quyloveulis@gmail.com
YSEALI alumni and members from the Read Green, Live Green project will partner with different NGOs to carry out a training day and book donation for student leaders at a secondary school in Nam Dinh province to learn about ecological lifestyles and approaches to lead and try eco-friendly behavior.

Into Nature Day
Projet leader: Nguyễn Huệ Phương, Phuong.vidothi@gmail.com
The YSEALI group from Into Nature Day project will create activities for urban children to learn about nature and connect with a rural community through hands-on experience at an interactive organic farm in a suburb of Hanoi.

English Fair for high school students in rural area, Thai Nguyen Province
Projet leader: Trần Thị Hải Yến, tranhaiyen.sfl@tnu.edu.vn
Teaching English to children in rural areas in Vietnam typically follow dated methods and curriculum. This small event aims to promote a suitable English speaking environment for students in Dai Tu Highschool, Thai Nguyen.

Community services activities at Orphanage
Projet leader: Trần Thị Nam Phương, phuongttn50.hrc@gmail.com
Lam Bich Orphanage is an orphan-care institution under the patronage of a local church in Quang Tri. Of 30 children here, many are either abandoned by their parents or come from a poor ethnic minority community. YSEALI alumni and members will clean, prepare meals, and teach soft skills for the orphans.

Running with the Visually Impaired
Projet leader: Đặng Thế Lâm, lam@vietnamandfriends.org
December 3rd is the UN’s International Day of People with Disabilities. YSEALI alumni and members will celebrate the day and express empathy for People with Disabilities by organizing a run with Visually Impaired people.

Little Things Matter (Dec 2, 2016)*
Projet leader: Phạm Thị Thu Thảo, thaopham0613@gmail.com
This workshop aims to raise awareness among youth about current environmental issues in Vietnam and the need for action, in order to inspire and equip young people with better understanding about Vietnam’s ecosystem, a green lifestyle and eco-friendly workplaces and solutions for sustainable growth.

Skill Me Up
Projet leader: Hy Thị Thu Trang, contact.skillmeup@gmail.com
A grand finale gala by YSEALI members running Skill Me Up project will help all volunteers and participating students to review all soft skills provided throughout the project including Self Awareness, Control of One’s Emotions, Sexual abuse prevention,
Empathy, etc. Skill Me Up is funded under YSEALI Seeds for the Future II and has applied to register as an officially licensed non-governmental organization.

Family Festival by Kids Need Books Project

Projet leader: Đoàn Thanh Hải, Haidoan711@gmail.com

With funding from YSEALI Seeds for the Future II, YSEALI Alumni and members from Kids Need Books Project will promote reading, especially among children by organizing a Family Festival. The event will encourage parents and children to connect via reading books together and other outdoor activities.
