

U.S. Embassy Hanoi Model East Asia Summit

Friday, July 29, 2019
2 pm - 6:00 pm

Event will be held in the American Center on 170 NgọcKhánh

Closing ceremonies will be held from 1:15pm-1:45pm (parents invited)

What is Model East Asia Summit?

Model East Asia Summit is an extracurricular activity that allows students to discuss relevant international issues that government leaders face on a day-to-day basis. Click here for the Model EAS highlight video.

Who can participate in Model East Asia Summit?

Any high school or university student who is interested in debating international issues from different viewpoints and positions should consider participating in Model East Asia Summit.

Why should you participate in Model East Asia Summit?

Model EAS will allow you to learn about complex political issues, improve your public speaking skills, broaden your English vocabulary, and challenge participants to think critically and creatively. Model East Asia Summit also looks great on applications to U.S. universities!

- Register for this event by 12:00 pm on Tuesday, July 23, 2019 at <https://bit.ly/2Qs6Cac>
- Receive research and preparation materials on an important regional and international issues:

CLIMATE CRISIS

Have the opportunity to win an iPod Touch and a certificate.

- East Asia Summit countries account for 55% of the global population & 55% of global GDP [IMF purchasing power parity GDP figures 2014]
- East Asia Summit representatives include U.S. President Donald Trump and Vietnamese Prime Minister Nguyễn Xuân Phúc

Members Candidates

East Asia Summit Participants

If you have questions, comments, or concerns, feel free to email irchanoi@gmail.com
For more events hosted by the US Embassy, check out our Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/usembassyhanoi/> and our webpage <https://vn.usembassy.gov/achanoi-public-events/>

The 2019 Model East Asia Summit will be focused on Climate Crisis

