A. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The U.S. Mission in Vietnam Public Affairs Section (PAS) of the U.S. Department of State is pleased to announce funding is available for University and High school Guidance Counselor Training through the Public Diplomacy Federal Assistance Awards program in Ho Chi Minh City and Hanoi. In the south, the programs must be held at the EducationUSA Advising Center in Ho Chi Minh City and/or a local institution in Danang City. In the north, the program must be held at a venue outside of the U.S. Embassy. Programs must focus on counselors or staff of educational institutions who assist students in pursuing study abroad, specifically to the United States.

Proposals for projects must focus on one of the priority programs and target audiences specified below:

- Train guidance counselors from international high schools/international universities in Ho Chi Minh City, Danang City, and Hanoi.
- Improve the capacity of English language teachers who serve in the counseling capacity and are new to the concept of guidance counseling from major local high schools (including high school for the gifted) in Ho Chi Minh City, Danang City, and Hanoi.
- Train staff in-charge of overseas study programs at the international relations departments at local universities.
- Total number of selected participants in Ho Chi Minh City and Danang City: 50-60/each city. Total number of selected participants in Hanoi: 100.

Goal: to improve the capacity of guidance counselors, administrative staff or English teachers of educational institutions who assist students in pursuing study abroad, specifically to the United States. By helping to improve their counseling skills and their understanding of U.S. higher education, they will in turn provide better guidance to their students who are thinking about pursuing higher education programs in the United States.

Activities and expenses that are not funded include, but are not limited to:

- individual travel to conferences;
- scholarships to support educational opportunities or study for individuals;
- support personal business
- funding ongoing projects, which would otherwise be funded through other means;
- financial support for fundraising or fund development projects without a clear public diplomacy component;
- cash prizes for competitions;
- networking events;
- business-class travel;
- translations
- alcoholic beverages.

Length of performance period

1 Please access https://vn.usembassy.gov/exchange-scholarship
In the south, competitive proposals should contain one workshop in Ho Chi Minh City and one in Danang. Each workshop will be one to two days long. Projects should be concluded before the end of 2019 and dates will be determined in coordination with the U.S. Consulate.

In the north, proposals should contain a full day workshop in Hanoi. Projects should be concluded by the end of September 2019 and dates will be determined in coordination with the U.S. Embassy.

Priority Topics:
In the south: U.S. higher education system, 5-step to study in the United States, How to choose college majors, career counseling, admission process to U.S. universities and colleges, accreditation, and application and visa procedures.
In the north: U.S. higher education system, career counselling, teaching STEM in English, teaching U.S. culture and society in English.

Other Criteria:
- Participants will be selected by the grantee in close consultation with EduUSA Team.
- The language of instruction is preferably English. The final presentation or capstone project must be in English.
- Trainers of the workshop must be experienced/working professionals familiar with or working in the U.S. higher education community.
- Budget in the proposal must include:
  - Cost of distributing advising materials/training handouts for participants
  - Salary of trainers.
  - Marketing and recruiting costs.
  - Cost for certificate ceremony.
  - Monitoring and evaluation costs.
  - Refreshments during the workshop and/or networking activities.
- The proposal must also include plan of course monitoring and overview, trainers’ profiles and marketing strategies. It must provide post-workshop feedback on the participants’ performance.

Successful projects will be eligible for renewal. The Public Affairs Section will entertain applications for continuation grants funded under these awards on a non-competitive basis, subject to availability of funds, satisfactory progress of the program, and a determination that continued funding would be in the best interest of the U.S. Department of State.

Award Amount

Award amount for southern programs will vary between $1,000 and $12,500. Award amount for the northern program will vary between $5,000 and $12,000.

The Public Affairs Section reserves the right to award less or more than the amount of funds described in the absence of worthy applications or under such other circumstances as they may deem to be in the best interest of the U.S. government. Competitive proposals should include a cost-share element.
Priority Region:

In the south: Only activities implemented/conducted in the EducationUSA Advising Center in Ho Chi Minh city, and a local institution in Danang will be funded.

In the north: Only activities implemented/conducted at a venue outside of the U.S. Embassy will be funded.

B. ELIGIBILITY ENTITY

Submissions are encouraged from U.S. and Vietnam entities with relevant programming experience. This experience should be documented in the proposal. Eligible entities include:

- not-for-profit, civil society/non-governmental organizations
- universities or non-profit English teaching institutions; non-profit educational institutions
- individuals

For-profit entities are ineligible to apply. Previous federal award recipients who are not/were not in compliance with the terms of their financial and program reporting requirements are ineligible to apply. It is the applicant’s responsibility to ensure they are in compliance with all applicable terms, conditions, and Office of Management and Budget guidance and requirements. Those organizations found to be in non-compliance may be found ineligible for funding or designated high risk if selected for funding.

C. APPLICATION AND SUBMISSION INFORMATION

1. Application Deadline

Applications may be submitted for consideration at any time before the closing date of this opportunity; however, all submission must be received by July 24, 2019 at 11:59 p.m. Vietnam time. For the purposes of determining if an award is submitted on time, officials will utilize the time-stamp provided by email.

It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that an application has been received in its entirety. The U.S. Mission in Vietnam bears no responsibility for applications not received before the due date or for data errors resulting from transmission.

2. Content of Application

Please follow all instructions below carefully. Proposals that do not meet the requirements of this announcement or fail to comply with the stated requirements will be deemed ineligible.

Please ensure:

1. The proposal clearly addresses the goals and objectives of this funding opportunity.
2. All documents are in English
3. All budgets are in U.S. dollars
4. All pages are numbered
5. All documents are formatted to 8 ½ x 11 paper, and
6. All Microsoft Word documents are single-spaced, 12 point Times New Roman font, with a minimum of 1-inch margins.

Step 1: Mandatory forms:

- SF424A (Budget Information for Non-Construction programs) at https://vn.usembassy.gov/sf424a

Step 2: Proposal

Our suggested proposal form can be found on our website: https://vn.usembassy.gov/proposal. You may use your own proposal format, but it must include all the items below.

- Summary page: include the applicant name and organization, project title, project period proposed start and end date, and brief purpose of the project

- Introduction to Organizational or Individual and the Capacity: a description that shows ability to carry out the project, including information on all previous grants from the U.S. Consulate and/or U.S. government agencies.

- Project Justification/Needs Statement: clear, concise and well-supported statement of the problem to be addressed and why the proposed project is needed

- Project Goals, Objectives: the “goals” describe what the project is intended to achieve. The “objectives” refer to the intermediate accomplishments on the way to the goals. These should be achievable and measurable.

- Project Activities: describe the project activities and how they will help achieve the objectives.

- Implementation Timeline: the proposed timeline for the project activities. Include the dates, times, and locations of planned activities and events.

- Monitoring and Evaluation Plan: this is an important part of successful grants. Throughout the time-frame of the grant, how will the activities be monitored to ensure they are happening in a timely manner, and how will the program be evaluated to make sure it is meeting the goals of the grant?

- Future Funding or Sustainability: applicant’s plan for continuing the program beyond the grant period, or the availability of other resources, if applicable
Key Personnel: names, titles, roles and experience/qualifications of key personnel involved in the project. What proportion of their time will be used in support of this project?

Project Partners: list the names and type of involvement of key partner organizations and sub-awardees.

Step 3: Budget Justification and Narrative

After filling out the SF-424A Budget information (above), use a separate sheet to describe each of the budget expenses in detail at https://vn.usembassy.gov/budget_narrative

See section F. Other Information: 1. Guidelines for Budget Submissions below for further information.

Step 4: Required Registrations

All organizations applying for grants (except individuals) must obtain these registrations. All are free of charge:

Step 4a: Apply for a DUNS number2

Organizations must have a Data Universal Numbering System (DUNS) number from Dun & Bradstreet. If your organization does not have one already, you may obtain one by calling 1-866-705-5711 or visiting http://fedgov.dnb.com/webform

All grantees who have previously received a U.S. Government Federal Assistance Award must additionally submit:

Step 4b: Apply for NCAGE code (this can be completed simultaneously with DUNS)

NCAGE application3: Application page here (but need to click magnifying glass and then scroll down to click new registration) https://eportal.nspa.nato.int/AC135Public/scage/CageList.aspx

Step 4c: Register in System for Award Management (SAM). You must have DUNS number and NCAGE code before proceeding to this step. SAM registration must be renewed annually.

D. REVIEW AND SELECTION PROCESS
Each technically eligible application submitted under this announcement will be evaluated and rated by a panel on the basis of the criteria detailed above, cost, feasibility, and reputation of the implementer.

E. FEDERAL AWARD ADMINISTRATION INFORMATION

1. Federal Award Notices
The successful applicant will be notified via email that its proposal has been selected to move forward in the review process; this email IS NOT an authorization to begin performance. The notice of Federal award signed by the Grants Officer (or equivalent) is the authorizing document. It shall be written, signed, awarded, and administered by the Grants Officer. The Grants Officer is the Government Official delegated the authority by the U.S. Department of State Procurement Executive to write, award, and administer grants and cooperative agreements. The assistance award agreement is the authorizing document and it will be provided to the Recipient through email transmission. The recipient may only incur obligations against the award beginning on the start date outlined in the DS-1909 award document that has been signed by the Grants Officer. Organizations whose applications will not be funded will also be notified via email, usually within 60 days, but may take longer.

2. Policy requirements
Before submitting an application, applicants should review all the terms and conditions and required certifications which will apply to this award, to ensure that they will be able to comply.

These include:

- Department of State Standard Terms and Conditions, available at https://vn.usembassy.gov/terms
• All applicants must adhere to the regulations found in 2 CFR 200, 2 CFR 600 Uniform Administrative Requirements, Costs Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards.

• Branding Requirements: As a condition of receipt of a grant award, all materials produced pursuant to the award, including training materials, materials for recipients or materials to communicate or promote with foreign audiences a program, event, project, or some other activity under an agreement, including but not limited to invitations to events, press materials, and backdrops, podium signs, etc. must be marked appropriately with the standard, rectangular U.S. flag in a size and prominence equal to (or greater than) any other logo or identity.

3. Reporting Requirements

Recipients are required to submit a program impact report electronically, in English, to the U.S. Mission in Vietnam within 30 days of the conclusion of your proposed program or activity.

The report should include the below elements:

• Demonstrate how your program or activity has contributed to the U.S. Mission in Vietnam’s mandate of promoting study in the United States.
• Provide information about measurable outcomes of the program or activity, including any new programs or partnerships that are generated as a result.
• Include a final agenda, where appropriate, and a final participant list.
• Provide a summary of actual expenditures.
• We recommend that you invite participants to complete a survey to provide feedback on your program or activity. Please include a one-page summary of participant feedback as an appendix to the evaluation summary.

Awardees that are deemed high risk may be required to submit more extensive and frequent reports until their high-risk designation has been removed.

The Awardee must also provide the Consulate and the Embassy on an annual basis an inventory of all the U.S. government provided equipment using the SF428 form.

Failure to comply with the reporting requirement may result in a loss of funds, and will adversely affect your ability to apply for future grants.

F. OTHER INFORMATION

1. Guidelines for Budget Justification

Personnel and Fringe Benefits: Describe the wages, salaries, and benefits of temporary or permanent staff who will be working directly for the applicant on the project, and the percentage of their time that will be spent on the project.
Travel: Estimate the costs of travel and per diem for this project, for both program staff, consultants or speakers, and participants/beneficiaries. If the project involves international travel, include a brief statement of justification for that travel.

Equipment: Describe any machinery, furniture, or other personal property that is required for the project, which has a useful life of more than one year (or a life longer than the duration of the project), and costs at least $5,000 per unit.

Supplies: List and describe all the items and materials, including any computer devices, that are needed for the project. If an item costs more than $5,000 per unit, then put it in the budget under Equipment.

Contractual: Describe goods and services that the applicant plans to acquire through a contract with a vendor. Also describe any sub-awards to non-profit partners that will help carry out the project activities.

Other Direct Costs: Describe other costs directly associated with the project, which do not fit in the other categories. For example, shipping costs for materials and equipment or applicable taxes. All “Other” or “Miscellaneous” expenses must be itemized and explained.

Indirect Costs: These are costs that cannot be linked directly to the project activities, such as overhead costs needed to help keep the organization operating. If your organization has a Negotiated Indirect Cost Rate (NICRA) and includes NICRA charges in the budget, attach a copy of your latest NICRA. Organizations that have never had a NICRA may request indirect costs of 10% of the modified total direct costs as defined in 2 CFR 200.68.

“Cost Sharing” refers to contributions from the organization or other entities other than the U.S. Embassy. It also includes in-kind contributions such as volunteers’ time and donated venues.

Alcoholic Beverages: Please note that award funds cannot be used for alcoholic beverages.

2. Disclaimers
The Federal government is not obligated to make any Federal award as a result of the announcement. Issuance of this NOFO does not constitute an award commitment on the part of the U.S. government, nor does it commit the U.S. government to pay for costs incurred in the preparation and submission of proposals. Further, the U.S. government reserves the right to reject any or all proposals received. The U.S. government also reserves the right to make an award in excess of the award ceiling.

If a proposal is funded, the Department of State has no obligation to provide any additional future funding in connection with the award. Renewal of an award to increase funding or extend the period of performance is at the total discretion of the Department of State.

This NOFO is subject to funds availability. Awards may be granted only if appropriated funds are allocated to the United States Consulate General by Department of State central budget authorities.

3. Copyrights and Proprietary Information
If any of the information contained in your application is proprietary, please note in the footer of the appropriate pages that the information is Confidential – Proprietary. Applicants should also note what parts of the application, program, concept, etc. are covered by copyright(s), trademark(s), or any other intellectual property rights and provide copies of the relevant documentation to support these copyrights.
