SUMMARY

This document contains detailed instructions and information about the Proposal process. Please read it carefully.

All applicants must submit proposals via email to HCMCGrants@state.gov. Activities will only be funded in the American Center in Ho Chi Minh City. We will generally consider proposals in the $1,000-$10,000 range. Proposals over $10,000 will only be considered with a cost share and on a case-by-case basis.

All first-time grantees requesting under $25,000 must include the following:
1. Mandatory application form: SF424 (for Organizations) OR SF424I (for Individuals)
2. Mandatory budget information form: SF424A
3. Grant proposal form; and detailed budget narrative (using Consulate General Ho Chi Minh City templates)
4. A DUNS number (not required for individuals)

All grantees who have previously received a U.S. Government Federal Assistance Award OR are requesting more than $25,000 must additionally submit:
1. Proof of active SAM and NCAGE registration

Registration/Renewal for SAM and NGACE can take up to four weeks. Please plan accordingly.

Due to the volume of applicants and inquiries, Public Affairs Section does not accept requests for meetings or phone calls prior to application.
A. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The U.S. Consulate General in Ho Chi Minh City Public Affairs Section (PAS) is pleased to announce available funding for the American Center Ho Chi Minh City’s American Social Club. All projects must take place during the regular office hours of the American Center from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday to Friday.

Proposals for projects that focus on at least one of the priority programs and target audiences specified below:

- Media & Arts: Course or workshop aimed at journalists, editors, and artists on providing the tools, knowledge, and platforms to strengthen respect for freedom of expression as well as instruct participants on how to use different art mediums to convey social issues. The program will help build support networks and mentoring opportunities through working with artists/art communities and will help foster an environment where gender equity, social inclusion, empowerment, and fundamental freedoms are the norm in arts, free speech, creative writing, photography, and video projects.

- Civil Society: Course or workshop aimed at students and young professionals to develop an increasingly comprehensive awareness of gender equity, respect of religion, human rights; combatting domestic violence, child abuse, trafficking-in-person; health care, or family planning. Alternatively, the program could focus on guiding young professionals towards career advancement.

- Civic Engagement: Course or workshop aimed at students and professionals on promoting responsible leadership, transparency and good governance. Alternatively, the program could advance citizens’ engagement in government decision-making, help civil society groups organize in a digital world, and promote open and accountable government and combat corruption.

- Digital Inclusion and Security: Course or workshop aimed at high school and college students on accelerating Internet access and empower communities to be active participants in the digital economy. Alternatively, the program could conduct trainings on free, open source software (FOSS) to raise cybersecurity awareness, combat cyberbullying and cyber violence, and counter disinformation and hate speech.

- Human and Societal Development: Course or workshop to provide access to knowledge regarding existing legislation and facilities for underprivileged groups and vulnerable communities, including LGBTQI groups, the disabled, religious organizations, ethnic minorities; domestic violence and sexual trafficking victims, and abuse survivors. The program will focus on employment opportunities, vocational training, and advising to help develop participants’ self-confidence and encourage them to be active, visible members of society.

- “World Café”: Monthly dialogue aimed at international relations, public administration, and journalism students to identify existing social issues, develop critical thinking skills and negotiation skills to help Vietnamese youth express themselves publicly and advocate for information transparency and law enforcement.
Criteria used for evaluating the proposals are as follows:

- Design and implement the American Social Club at the American Center Ho Chi Minh City.
- Available classroom sizes can accommodate up to 20 students or up to 200 students.
- Competitive proposals for courses will have two to four contact hours per week, for a minimum of 24 hours in total or 6 weeks. Competitive proposals for workshops will have two to four sessions, for a minimum of eight contact hours or two days.
- Duration should be a minimum of three months and a maximum of one year.
- Students/participants will be recruited by the grantee.
- The language of instruction is preferably English, but Vietnamese may be used in some instances. The final presentation or capstone project must be in English.
- The proposal must include detailed information about the project members and instructor(s), including CV, resume and other relevant professional experience.
- The instructors of the class should be trained teachers or working professionals.
- The grantee is responsible for obtaining visas and any other legal documents required by the Government of Vietnam for staff to work in the country.
- Budget in the proposal must include:
  - Cost of teaching materials for teachers and learning materials for students
  - Salary of teachers
  - Marketing and recruiting costs
  - Field trips
- The proposal must also include marketing strategies, syllabus, and plan of course monitoring and evaluation.
- Provide post-course feedback on the students’ performance.

Activities and expenses that are generally not funded include, but are not limited to:

- the purchase or long-term lease of space or buildings in support of program activities;
- support personal business;
- construction projects;
- individual travel to conferences;
- scholarships to support educational opportunities or study for individuals;
- funding ongoing projects, which would otherwise be funded through other means;
- financial support for fundraising or fund development projects;
- projects that are inherently political in nature or that contain the appearance of partisanship/support to an individual or single party in electoral campaigns;
- political party and lobbying activities;
- projects that support specific religious activities;
- cash prizes for competitions;
- networking events;
- business-class travel;
- development projects without a clear public diplomacy component
- translations;
- alcoholic beverages.
Target Audience:
The target audiences for successful projects are Vietnamese students and professionals ages 15-40.

Priority Region:
Only activities implemented/conducted in the American Center in Ho Chi Minh city, Vietnam will be funded.

Length of performance period
Duration should be a minimum of six months and a maximum of one year. Successful projects will be eligible for renewal.

The Public Affairs Section will entertain applications for continuation grants funded under these awards on a non-competitive basis, subject to availability of funds, satisfactory progress of the program, and a determination that continued funding would be in the best interest of the U.S. Department of State.

Award Amount
Award Amount will vary between $1,000 and $10,000. Proposals over $10,000 will be considered only with a cost share and on a case-by-case basis. Proposals which include a cost share are strongly encouraged and have a higher likelihood of being funded. The Public Affairs Section of the U.S. Consulate General in Ho Chi Minh City reserves the right to award less or more than the amount of funds described in the absence of worthy applications or under such other circumstances as they may deem to be in the best interest of the U.S. government.

B. ELIGIBILITY ENTITY

Submissions are encouraged from U.S. and Vietnam entities with relevant programming and/or teaching experience. This experience should be documented in the proposal. Eligible entities include:

- not-for-profit, civil society/non-governmental organizations
- universities; non-profit educational institutions
- individuals

For-profit entities are not allowed to apply. Previous federal award recipients who are not/were not in compliance with the terms of their financial and program reporting requirements are ineligible to apply. It is the applicant’s responsibility to ensure they are in compliance with all applicable terms, conditions, and Office of Management and Budget guidance and requirements. Those organizations found to be in non-compliance may be found ineligible for funding or designated high risk if selected for funding.
C. APPLICATION AND SUBMISSION INFORMATION

1. Application Deadline
Applications may be submitted for consideration at any time before the closing date of this opportunity; however, all submission must be received by February 16, 2020, 11:59 p.m. (Vietnam time). For the purposes of determining if an award is submitted on time, officials will utilize the time-stamp provided by email. NO EXCEPTIONS WILL BE MADE FOR LATE SUBMISSIONS.

It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that an application has been received in its entirety. U.S. Consulate General Ho Chi Minh City bears no responsibility for applications not received before the due date or for data errors resulting from transmission.

2. Content of Application

Please follow all instructions below carefully. Proposals that do not meet the requirements of this announcement or fail to comply with the stated requirements will be ineligible.

Please ensure:
1. The proposal clearly addresses the goals and objectives of this funding opportunity;
2. All documents are in English;
3. All budgets are in U.S. dollars
4. All pages are numbered;
5. All documents are formatted to 8 ½ x 11 paper;
6. All Microsoft Word documents are single-spaced, 12 point Times New Roman font, with a minimum of 1-inch margins.

Step 1: Mandatory forms:
- SF424A (Budget Information for Non-Construction programs) at https://vn.usembassy.gov/sf424a

Step 2: Proposal
Our suggested proposal form can be found on our website: https://vn.usembassy.gov/proposal. You may use your own proposal format, but it must include all the items below.

- Summary page: Include the applicant name and organization, project title, project period proposed start and end date, and brief purpose of the project.

- Introduction to Organizational or Individual and the Capacity: A description that shows ability to carry out the project, including information on all previous grants from the U.S. Consulate and/or U.S. government agencies.

- Project Justification/Needs Statement: Clear, concise and well-supported statement of the problem to be addressed and why the proposed project is needed.
• Project Goals, Objectives: The “goals” describe what the project is intended to achieve. The “objectives” refer to the intermediate accomplishments on the way to the goals, as well as the sustainability and impact of the project. These should be achievable and measurable.

• Project Activities: Describe the project activities and how they will help achieve the objectives, including a clear public outreach component.

• Implementation Timeline: The proposed timeline for the project activities. Include the dates, times, and locations of planned activities and events.

• Monitoring and Evaluation Plan: This is an important part of successful grants. Throughout the time-frame of the grant, how will the activities be monitored to ensure they are happening in a timely manner, and how will the program be evaluated to make sure it is meeting the goals of the grant?

• Future Funding or Sustainability: Applicant’s plan for continuing the program beyond the grant period, or the availability of other resources, if applicable.

• Key Personnel: Names, titles, roles and experience/qualifications of key personnel involved in the project. What proportion of their time will be used in support of this project?

• Project Partners: List the names and type of involvement of key partner organizations and sub-awardees.

Step 3: Budget Justification and Narrative
After filling out the SF-424A Budget (above), use a separate sheet to describe each of the budget expenses in detail at https://vn.usembassy.gov/budget_narrative.

See section F. Other Information: 1. Guidelines for Budget Submissions below for further information.

A formal decision on your proposal will normally be made within 60 days, but may take longer. Once a decision is made to fund your proposal, and all documentation is complete we will begin the process of funding.

D. REVIEW AND SELECTION PROCESS

Each technically eligible application submitted under this announcement will be evaluated and rated by a panel on the basis of the criteria detailed below. Each organization/individual can submit more than one proposal.

1. Quality and Feasibility of the Program Idea – The program idea should be well developed, with sufficient detail about how project activities will be strategically carried out. The proposals should demonstrate originality and outline clear, achievable objectives. The proposal includes a reasonable implementation timeline. The project scope is appropriate and clearly defined.

2. Project Justification and Support of U.S. Public Diplomacy Priorities – The project is likely to provide maximum impact in furthering the broader U.S. Public Diplomacy policy objectives. The project addresses one or more of the priority program objectives, target audiences, and geographic area identified in the solicitation. The proposal contains a compelling justification, demonstrating an in-depth understanding of the environment and citing specific factors creating/influencing the need for the proposed project.

3. Organization’s Record and Capacity – The organization has expertise in the subject area and demonstrates the ability to perform the proposed activities. The organization demonstrates capacity for successful planning and responsible fiscal management. Applicants who have received grant funds previously have been compliant with applicable rules and regulations. Where partners are described, the applicant details each partner’s respective role and provides curriculum vitae (CVs) for persons responsible for the project and financial administration. Proposed personnel, institutional resources and partners are adequate and appropriate.

4. Cost-Effectiveness - The budget and narrative justification are sufficiently detailed and linked. Projects with budgets that do not match the program narrative, and vice versa, are unlikely to be successful. Costs are reasonable in relation to the proposed activities and anticipated results. The budget is realistic, accounting for all necessary expenses to achieve proposed activities. The results and proposed outcomes justify the total cost of the project. Budget items are reasonable, allowable, and allocable.

5. Monitoring and Evaluation - Applicant demonstrates it is able to measure program success against key indicators and provide milestones to indicate progress toward Public Affairs Section goals. Projects should demonstrate the capacity for engaging in outcome-based evaluations and identify prescribed outputs and outcomes to measure how program activities will achieve the program’s strategic objectives. The Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E) Plan should include output- and outcome-based indicators, baseline and target for each indicator, disaggregation if applicable, monitoring and evaluation tools, data source, and frequency of monitoring and evaluation.

6. Sustainability and Impact - Proposals should clearly delineate how elements of their program will have a multiplier effect and be sustainable beyond the life of the grant. A good multiplier effect may include but is not limited to, plans to build lasting networks for direct and indirect beneficiaries, follow-on training and mentoring, and continued use of project deliverables. A strong sustainability plan may include demonstrating capacity-building results, a plan to generate revenue, or interest and support from the private sector. Proposed impact should be clearly outlined and coincide with public diplomacy goals.

E. FEDERAL AWARD ADMINISTRATION INFORMATION

1. Federal Award Notices

The successful applicant will be notified via email that its proposal has been selected to move forward in the review process; this email IS NOT an authorization to begin performance. The notice of Federal award signed by the Grants Officer (or equivalent) is the authorizing document. It shall be written, signed, awarded, and administered by the Grants Officer. The Grants Officer is the Government Official delegated the authority by the U.S. Department of State Procurement Executive to write, award, and administer grants and cooperative agreements. The assistance award agreement is the authorizing document and it will be provided to the Recipient through email transmission. The recipient may only incur obligations against the award beginning on the start date outlined in the DS-1909/DS-1909i award document that has been signed by the Grants Officer. Organizations whose applications will not be funded will also be notified via email, usually within 60 days, but may take longer. Decisions on funding are non-reviewable, nor subject to appeal.

2. Policy requirements

Before submitting an application, applicants should review all the terms and conditions and required certifications which will apply to this award, to ensure that they will be able to comply. These include:

- All applicants must adhere to the regulations found in 2 CFR 200, 2 CFR 600 Uniform Administrative Requirements, Costs Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards.

- Branding Requirements: As a condition of receipt of a grant award, all materials produced pursuant to the award, including training materials, materials for recipients or materials to communicate or promote with foreign audiences a program, event, project, or some other activity under an agreement, including but not limited to invitations to events, press materials, and backdrops, podium signs, etc. must be marked appropriately with the standard, rectangular U.S. flag and American Center logo in a size and prominence equal to (or greater than) any other logo or identity.

3. Reporting Requirements

Recipients are required to submit quarterly (calendar year) program progress and financial reports electronically throughout the project period. Final certified programmatic and financial reports are due 60 days after the close of the project period.

- First Quarter (January 1 – March 31): Report due by March 31
- Second Quarter (April 1 – June 30): Report due by June 30
- Third Quarter (July 1 – September 30): Report due by September 30
- Fourth Quarter (October 1 – December 31): Report due by December 31

Awardees that are deemed to be high risk may be required to submit more extensive and frequent reports until their high risk designation has been removed.

The Awardee must also provide the Consulate on an annual basis an inventory of all the U.S. government provided equipment using the SF428 form.

Failure to comply with the reporting requirement may result in a loss of funds, and will adversely affect your ability to successfully apply for future grants.
F. OTHER INFORMATION

1. Guidelines for Budget Justification

Personnel and Fringe Benefits: Describe the wages, salaries, and benefits of temporary or permanent staff who will be working directly for the applicant on the project, and the percentage of their time that will be spent on the project.

Travel: Estimate the costs of travel and per diem for this project, for both program staff, consultants or speakers, and participants/beneficiaries. If the project involves international travel, include a brief statement of justification for that travel.

Equipment: Describe any machinery, furniture, or other personal property that is required for the project, which has a useful life of more than one year (or a life longer than the duration of the project), and costs at least $5,000 per unit.

Supplies: List and describe all the items and materials, including any computer devices, that are needed for the project. If an item costs more than $5,000 per unit, then put it in the budget under Equipment.

Contractual: Describe goods and services that the applicant plans to acquire through a contract with a vendor. Also describe any sub-awards to non-profit partners that will help carry out the project activities.

Other Direct Costs: Describe other costs directly associated with the project, which do not fit in the other categories. For example, shipping costs for materials and equipment or applicable taxes. All “Other” or “Miscellaneous” expenses must be itemized and explained.

Indirect Costs: These are costs that cannot be linked directly to the project activities, such as overhead costs needed to help keep the organization operating. If your organization has a Negotiated Indirect Cost Rate (NICRA) and includes NICRA charges in the budget, attach a copy of your latest NICRA. Organizations that have never had a NICRA may request indirect costs of 10% of the modified total direct costs as defined in 2 CFR 200.68.

“Cost Sharing” refers to contributions from the organization or other entities other than the U.S. Embassy. It also includes in-kind contributions such as volunteers’ time and donated venues.

Alcoholic Beverages: Please note that award funds cannot be used for alcoholic beverages.

2. Disclaimers

The Federal government is not obligated to make any Federal award as a result of the announcement. Issuance of this NOFO does not constitute an award commitment on the part of the U.S. government, nor does it commit the U.S. government to pay for costs incurred in the preparation and submission of proposals. Further, the U.S. government reserves the right to reject any or all proposals received. The U.S. government also reserves the right to make an award in excess of the award ceiling.

If a proposal is funded, the Department of State has no obligation to provide any additional future funding in connection with the award. Renewal of an award to increase funding or extend the period of performance is at the total discretion of the Department of State.

This NOFO is subject to funds availability. Awards may be granted only if appropriated funds are allocated to the United States Consulate General by Department of State central budget authorities.

3. Copyrights and Proprietary Information

If any of the information contained in your application is proprietary, please note in the footer of the appropriate pages that the information is Confidential – Proprietary. Applicants should also note what parts of the application, program, concept, etc. are covered by copyright(s), trademark(s), or any other intellectual property rights and provide copies of the relevant documentation to support these copyrights.
